

Hyla Brook

By June our brook's run out of song and speed.
Sought for much after that, it will be found
Either to have gone groping underground
(And taken with it all the Hyla breed
That shouted in the mist a month ago,
Like ghost of sleigh-bells in a ghost of snow)—
Or flourished and come up in jewel-weed,
Weak foliage that is blown upon and bent
Even against the way its waters went.
Its bed is left a faded paper sheet
Of dead leaves stuck together by the heat—
A brook to none but who remember long.
This as it will be seen is other far
Than with brooks taken elsewhere in song.
We love the things we love for what they are.

Теперь закрой окно

Закрой окно и стихнет поля даль,
И кроны пусть качаясь замолчат,
Нет пенья птиц, поющих видеть жаль
Среди утрат.

Так долго топь не зарастет травой,
Так долго не услышишь ранних птах.
Закрой окно, и стихнет ветра вой,
Смотри, он гонит прах.
